The candidate undertakes to notify the Administration of any changes to the contact details listed in the application form.

Art. 4 – Selection Procedure

Candidates are selected by a comparative evaluation of their qualifications, academic and professional curriculum vitae, publications, reference letters and research proposal. Candidate applications shall be evaluated by a Selection Committee appointed by the Head of the Department; the Selection Committee shall comprise three lecturers and researchers who are experts in the field of the proposed research.

The Selection Committee has 100 points to evaluate the candidates and they shall be awarded for:

- qualifications up to 20 points: degree, PhD, specialisation degree, postgraduate certificates (awarded in Italy and abroad). If a PhD or an equivalent qualification obtained abroad or, for relevant research areas, specialisation degrees in medicine together with adequate scientific production output, is not deemed compulsory, for ranking purposes these qualifications will be considered desirable.
- the curriculum vitae up to 10 points: performance of documented research activity at public and private organisations with contracts, grants or appointments (both in Italy and abroad) relevant to research stated in this selection announcement.
- publications up to 30 points: including postgraduate dissertations (Laurea Specialistica/Magistrale) or PhD theses.
- Reference letters up to 10 points.
- the research project up to 30 points: quality, degree of innovation, feasibility and sustainability and consistency with the candidate's research profile.

At the end of the evaluation, the Selection Committee shall draw up a provisional ranking based on the total of the scores the candidates were awarded for each category.

To be included in the ranking, candidates must be awarded a minimum overall score of 50 points. In the event of a tie, preference will be given to the younger candidate.

The selection report and the provisional ranking shall be officially approved by a Rector's Decree and then published in the Official University Register.

Art. 5 - Entering into the agreement

Research grants are awarded with bespoke research activity agreements entered into with the Department that published the announcement ("Research Base").

The Department shall notify the winner of the date by which he or she must enter into the agreement, under penalty of cancellation.

Should the agreement not be entered into by this date, the winner shall forfeit the right to the research grant.

Research activity may not be commenced before the winner has entered into the agreement, which shall normally come into force on the first day of the month after it was signed.

Should the winner be an employee of the Public Administration, then he or she must be placed on unpaid leave for the entire duration of this research grant.

The awarding of the research grant does not constitute subordinate employment nor does it entitle the Grant Holder to a permanent position at the University.

Grants shall be paid in deferred monthly instalments.

The Department shall nominate a Contact Person in the method described hereunder: Professor Antonio Nicolo' as Coordinator of the in charge Commission, and, through the Head of Department, shall ensure the financial contributions related to the research expenses are administered and made available for the entire duration of the research contract.

Art. 6 – Rights and Duties

The Grant Holder shall conduct his/her research activity personally and fully, which is of a flexible nature, with no set working hours, in a continuous and not merely occasional manner. The Grant Holder's activity will be established by a personal agreement. This agreement does not in any way represent an employment relationship.

The grants within this announcement may not be combined with other grants or with study grants of any other kind, unless they have been awarded by national or international organisations and involve trips abroad as part of the Grant Holder's research.

Grant Holders are not allowed to enrol in degree courses, specialisation degrees (specialistica/magistrale), funded PhDs or medical specialisations in Italy or abroad. Nor is holding a research grant compatible with enrolment at specialisation schools. An employee of the Public Administration must be placed on unpaid leave.

Art. 7 - Confidentiality and intellectual property

Should the Grant Holder come into contact with information or data covered by confidentiality agreements signed by the Department for which he/she works during the performance of his/her duties, then the Grant Holder hereby pledges to keep all of this information and data confidential.

Attribution of the right to register a patent for the inventions produced on the basis of any scientific research activity carried out with the facilities and funds of the University of Padua is generally governed by the University's Patent Regulations.

Art. 8 - Tax, social security and insurance

The grants within this present announcement are governed by a series of laws:

- Art. 4 of Law no. 476 dated 13 August 1984, for tax;
- Art. 2, paragraphs 26 and following of Law no. 335 dated 8 August 1995, plus subsequent amendments and additions, for social security;
- the Ministry of Labour and Social Security decree dated 12 July 2007 for maternity leave (see Official Gazette no. 247 dated 23 October 2007);
- and Art. 1 paragraph 788 of Law no. 296 dated 27 Decembre 2006, plus subsequent amendments, for sick leave.

The University shall provide insurance coverage for accidents and civil liability in accordance with the conditions stated in the policies taken out by the University.

Should the Grant Holder be sent on leave for official university business, then the costs shall be sustained by the Grant Holder from his/her research funds, or by the host organisation in accordance with the University Regulations Governing Leave for Official University Business.

Art. 9 - Verifying the Grant Holder's activity

The evaluation method, determined by the Board of the Department which publishes the selection announcement, comprises the following:

After the first ten months of research, the Grant Holder shall present the Director of the Department of Economics and Management with a report that includes a statement of the activity he/she has conducted and the results obtained. This report shall be accompanied by the Coordinator's assessment and be evaluated by the Research Base Board.

At the end of the research assignment, the Grant Holder shall present to the Director of the Department of Economics and Management a final report including a statement of the activities he/she has conducted and the achieved results. This report shall be accompanied by the Coordinator's assessment.

Art. 10 - Final Provisions

For anything not specified within this present announcement, reference shall be made to the provisions of Law no. 240/2010, to the University of Padua's current Regulations Governing Research Grant Awards in accordance with Art. 22 of Law no. 240/2010, and to current law.

The University Administration reserves the right to verify a candidate's self-certifications and statutory declaration, in accordance with Italian Presidential Decree DPR 445/2000, at any stage of the procedure. If the aforementioned statements are found to be false, then the declarer shall forfeit any benefits that he/she may have gained from the false statements, without prejudice to any sanctions envisaged by the Italian criminal code or by special laws governed by Art. 76 of Italian Presidential Decree DPR no. 445/2000.

The person responsible for the selection process is the Head of Department, Prof. Giulio Cainelli.

Art. 11- Handling Personal Data

Treatment of personal data complies with the general elements of EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR, 27.04.2016 no. 679)

Personal data provided by candidates in print or electronic format is processed for the purposes of this announcement and the entering into and managing of the relationship with the University, strictly for the period relevant to administration of the grant.

The data obtained for this selection process is necessary for the administration of this selection announcement and, in the case of sensitive information, is handled in accordance with Law no. 68/1999 and Law no. 104/1992.
