

University
of Glasgow

INCOMING ERASMUS+ COURSE SELECTION GUIDE

2019-20

Using this Guide

In the email you received confirming your nomination, you will have been told which subject area at Glasgow most closely aligns with the subject agreement between the University of Glasgow and your home university. This subject is where you are expected to select the majority of your courses.

This guide provides useful information about how to choose your courses, followed by subject-specific advice. Please read this carefully before selecting courses. The advice is split into each of our four colleges and the subjects are listed below.

Please click on each of the subjects to take you directly to that part of the guide:

College of Medical, Veterinary and Life Sciences (MVLS) (page 4)

- Life Sciences

College of Arts (pages 5-9)

- Archaeology
- Arts and Media Informatics
- Celtic Studies & Gaelic
- Classics, Latin & Greek
- Comparative Literature
- English Language & Linguistics
- English Literature
- Film & TV Studies
- French
- German
- History
- History of Art
- Italian
- Music
- Philosophy
- Portuguese (Hispanic Studies)
- Russian
- Scottish Literature
- Slavonic Studies
- Spanish (Hispanic Studies)
- Theatre Studies
- Theology & Religious Studies

Courses are also available at the Language Centre.

Language Centre (page 15)

- Language Courses for International Mobility
- English for Academic Purposes

College of Science and Engineering

(pages 9-11)

- Astronomy
- Chemistry
- Computing Science
- Engineering
- Geography & Earth Sciences
- Mathematics
- Physics
- Psychology
- Statistics

College of Social Sciences (pages 12-14)

- Accounting and Finance
- Central and Eastern European Studies
- Economics
- Economic & Social History
- Education
- Interdisciplinary Studies
- Law
- Management
- Politics
- Public Policy
- Sociology
- Urban Studies

Classes that are not available

Courses with the following codes are not available to any visiting students:

- Medicine (MED)
- Dentistry (DENT)
- Veterinary Medicine (VETMED)
- Postgraduate level (5xxx)

How to select courses at the University of Glasgow

Can you guarantee courses in advance for me?

- No. The University of Glasgow cannot guarantee courses in advance for incoming exchange students
- In cases of oversubscription degree-seeking students will be prioritised
- Beware of timetable clashes at enrolment. You may have to change your course selection on arrival
- Not all of our courses run every year and some run in alternate semesters
- You should be prepared to identify alternatives

Where can I find specific information on courses?

- Please use the course catalogue to choose courses: gla.ac.uk/coursecatalogue/
- Important: The catalogue is updated in the summer, so course information and availability may change
- You can search the course catalogue by subject area, by semester of teaching, and by availability for visiting students

Which courses are available to Erasmus students?

- Read the subject-specific information in this guide before selecting your courses to ensure you have a valid course load
- Use the course catalogue to check if a particular course is available for Erasmus students or not
- The courses you take at Glasgow will be linked to the subject agreement you are coming under
- All Erasmus+ students must take the majority of their classes with the Glasgow subject that holds their agreement, i.e. this means 2/3 of your overall semester course load, which equates to 40 Glasgow Credits/ 20 ECTS. You can request a minority of classes from other subjects. Please note availability for these courses may be limited, or there may be agreement restrictions
- Courses running for the full year are not usually suitable for semester-only students
- Courses will normally run just once per academic year – i.e. if a course is listed as semester 1, it will not run in semester 2

The courses that you can take depend on:

- Course availability in the semester/year you are attending
- Your individual academic background
- The subject agreement you are coming to Glasgow under

Which subject agreement am I coming to Glasgow under?

- Ask your home university; they should be able to provide this information
- Once you have been nominated to the University of Glasgow by your home University, we will reconfirm this information for you

Which level of course should I pick?

- The University of Glasgow offers a four-year undergraduate degree programme: Level 1 (1xxx) = first year, Level 2 (2xxx) = second year, and so on.
- Level 3 is not always available to visiting students
- You can normally request courses from Levels 1 – 4 in your main subject; you will normally be restricted to Levels 1 or 2 in other subjects
- Level 5 (postgraduate) courses are not available to Erasmus students. Incoming students who are postgraduates at their home university will be restricted to Levels 3 and 4 at Glasgow. Specific exceptions may apply. These are noted in the subject area information below.

How many credits do I have to take?

- You will take 60 Glasgow credits for 1 semester
- You will take 120 Glasgow credits for a full year – ideally this would be split equally across both semesters
- You are not allowed to underload or overload
- All students are required to take a full course load. Work that you are doing for your home university (e.g.dissertation, thesis, essays, exams) while on exchange does not count towards your Glasgow credit load

What is the credit ratio between local Glasgow credits and ECTS?

- The credit ratio is 2 Glasgow credits to 1 ECTS. Courses which are worth 20 Glasgow credits are therefore worth 10 ECTS; courses which are worth 40 Glasgow credits are worth 20 ECTS.

Is Project Work available?

- Project Work is unavailable in most subject areas. Project work is sometimes available in the following subject areas: Chemistry, Physics, Mechanical, Civil, Electrical, or Biomedical Engineering, Geography/Earth Sciences, Slavonic Studies and Urban Studies
- You must complete and upload the project work statement template form with your online application – please ask us for details.
- If project work is not offered within the terms of your exchange, you may be able to apply for a Traineeship. Check information for Trainees on our webpage at gla.ac.uk/study/visiting/studyabroadexchange/erasustraineeship/

College of Medical, Veterinary and Life Sciences (MVLS)

BIOLOGY & LIFE SCIENCES (BIOL)

- At least 40 credits must be selected within Life Sciences
- Level 2 consists of 2 courses in semester 1:
 - Fundamental Topics in Biology 2 (BIOL2039) – 30 Credits
 - Key Skills in Biology 2 (BIOL2040) – 30 Credits
- and 4 courses in semester 2 :
 - Animal Biology, Evolution and Ecology 2 (BIOL2041) – 30 Credits
 - Genes, Molecules and Cells 2 (BIOL2042) – 30 Credits
 - Human Biological Sciences 2 (BIOL2043) – 30 Credits
 - Microbiology & Immunity 2 (BIOL2044) – 30 Credits
- Level 3 course are 60 credits and run for one Semester. If you are here for a full year, you would be expected to take the partner course to the Semester 1 course in semester 2 i.e. Animal Biology 3A and 3B.
- Students looking to take level 4 classes should be aware of the following:
 - Semester 1 will have 2 option blocks, consisting of:
 - A compulsory Core course worth 20 credits (taking place on Mondays)
 - An additional option worth 20 credits (taking place on Fridays)
 - You would not be able to take a full course load in Biology and would therefore need to take another 20 credits in a different subject area
 - Semester 2 will have 4 option blocks:
 - Block A will take place on Mondays, Block B on Tuesdays, Block C on Thursdays, and Block D on Fridays
 - All of these options will be worth 20 credits, and you could therefore take a full course load in Biology if eligible
- We therefore recommend semester 2 or full year study for Biology
- Students taking Level 4 courses should only take 1 course in each 5 week teaching block as assessments are at the same time for all courses in the block.

College of Arts

ARCHAEOLOGY (ARCH)

- No prerequisites for entry into Level 1 courses
- Prerequisite knowledge required for levels 2, 3 and 4

ARTS AND MEDIA INFORMATICS (ARTMED)

- No prerequisites for entry into Level 1 courses
- Prerequisite knowledge required for levels 2, 3 and 4

CELTIC STUDIES & GAELIC (CELTICIV/ GAELIC)

- No previous knowledge required for Gaelic 1 (Beginners)
- Some previous experience required for Gaelic 1 & 2 (Intermediate)
- Students are required to be fluent for Gaelic 1 & 2 (Advanced)
- No Gaelic courses are available from semester 2 – Please come in semester 1 or for the full year
- Level 1 and 2 Celtic Civilisation modules are open to all and require no previous background
- Prerequisite knowledge required for levels 3 and 4

CLASSICS, LATIN & GREEK (CLASSIC/LATIN/GREEK)

- There are language pre-requisites for all LATIN and GREEK options at all levels except LATIN1A and GREEK1A (beginners) options
- Level 1 Classical Civilisation modules are open to all and require no previous background
- Prerequisite knowledge required for levels 2,3 and 4

COMPARATIVE LITERATURE (COMPLIT)

- Single semester students: Course choices limited to Levels 1 and 2
- Full year students: Levels 1-4 available

ENGLISH LANGUAGE & LINGUISTICS (ENGLANG)

- Full year exchange only. Single semester students will not be admitted
- English Language & Linguistics classes are only available to students attending under specific English Language & Linguistics agreements. Classes may also be available to those who are on School of Critical Studies agreements
- Level 5 courses are not available

ENGLISH LITERATURE (ENGLIT)

- No pre-requisites required for Level 1
- Students requesting lower level classes will be approved for Level 1 or 2, space permitting. Classes cannot be guaranteed in advance.
- Levels 3 and 4 are only available to students attending under English Literature agreements with Uppsala Universiteit and Universiteit van Amsterdam

FILM & TV STUDIES (FTV)

- Levels 3-4 are only available to students attending under the Film and Television agreement with the University of Stockholm
- Students from other subject areas may request courses from level 1 but please note these are often over-subscribed

FRENCH (FRENCH)

- Students attending under French agreements are welcome to request classes from other subjects in the School of Modern Languages. Beware of timetable clashes
- Literature courses can be selected from Scottish Literature, Comparative Literature, French, and English Literature (Levels 1 or 2)
- Incoming translation students: Select FRENCH4102 and/or FRENCH 4103
- Courses from the MSc in Translation are not available
- Only full year students may take FRENCH1006 or FRENCH2011
- Full year and semester 1 only students may take Level 1 Beginners (FRENCH1005)
- Semester 2 only students cannot take any language courses with a FRENCH code – you should refer to Languages for International Mobility instead

GERMAN (GERMAN)

- Students attending under German agreements are welcome to request classes from other subjects in the School of Modern Languages. Beware of timetable clashes
- Literature courses can be selected from Scottish Literature, Comparative Literature and English Literature (Levels 1 or 2)
- German Language courses are not available to native German speakers
- Courses from the MSc in Translation are not available.
- Level 1 German Beginners is not available
- Only full year students may take GERMAN1004 or GERMAN2011
- Full year and semester 1 only students may take Level 1 Beginners (GERMAN1003)
- Semester 2 only students cannot take any language courses with a GERMAN code – you should refer to Languages for International Mobility instead

HISTORY (HIST)

- Unavailable courses: Introduction to Scottish Culture (HIST1024) & Introduction to Scottish Culture 2 (HIST1025)
- Please note that not all courses shown in the course catalogue will run every year. Normally only a selection of these will be on offer

HISTORY OF ART (HISTART)

- Courses in this subject are only available to students attending under our History of Art agreements with the following partners: Bonn, Ecole du Louvre and Institut d'Etudes Supérieures
- Bonn students: may select courses from level 1 - 4
- Ecole du Louvre and Institut d'Etudes Supérieures des Arts students only – select courses from Level 5

ITALIAN (ITALIAN)

- Students attending under Italian agreements are welcome to request classes from other subjects in the School of Modern Languages. Beware of timetable clashes
- Literature courses can be selected from Scottish Literature, Comparative Literature and English Literature (Levels 1 or 2)
- Course choices may be limited to Levels 1 and 2 for single semester stays
- Courses from the MSc in Translation are not available

- Only full year students may take ITALIAN1005 or ITALIAN2011
- Full year and semester 1 only students may take Level 1 Beginners (ITALIAN1004)
- Semester 2 only students cannot take any language courses with an ITALIAN code – you should refer to Languages for International Mobility instead

MUSIC (MUSIC)

- Semester 1 or full year exchange duration recommended
- Limited availability of courses in semester 2
- Prerequisite knowledge of subject required for all Levels

PHILOSOPHY (PHIL)

- Please note that not all courses shown in the course catalogue will run every year. Normally only a selection of these will be on offer
- Prerequisite knowledge is required for levels 3 and 4

PORTUGUESE (HISPANIC STUDIES) (HISP)

- Level 1 (no pre-requisites) and Level 2 courses are available to students from other agreements
- Students attending under Portuguese agreements are welcome to request classes from other subjects in the School of Modern Languages. Beware of timetable clashes
- Literature courses can be selected from Scottish Literature, Comparative Literature and English Literature (Levels 1 or 2)
- Courses from the MSc in Translation are not available

RUSSIAN (RUSSIAN)

- Russian Language courses are not available to native Russian speakers
- Beware of timetable clashes between Russian and other SMLC courses
- Approval for all Levels apart from Level 1 will be subject to review during Orientation
- Only full year students may take RUSSIAN2001
- Full year and semester 1 only students may take RUSSIAN1001 or 1002
- Semester 2 only students cannot take any language courses with a RUSSIAN code – you should refer to Languages for International Mobility instead

SCOTTISH LITERATURE (SCOTLIT)

- Students attending under a Scottish Literature agreement may request courses from Scottish Literature, Comparative Literature and English Literature (Levels 1 or 2)
- Students attending under a Scottish Literature agreement whose own degree programme has a focus on Scottish Literature may consider literature/interdisciplinary courses offered through Celtic Studies

SLAVONIC STUDIES (SLAV/CZECH/POLISH)

- Students attending under Slavonic Studies agreements can request literature classes from Comparative Literature, Scottish Literature and Czech/Polish/Russian etc. depending on linguistic aptitude
- Level 5 courses from MSc in Translation are not available

Project Work

- Project work must be requested at the point of application
- Final acceptance is subject to:
 - Identifying a supervisor
 - Being nominated for a standard academic duration
- If a supervisor cannot be identified, students will be offered the option of coming to conduct coursework instead

SPANISH (HISPANIC STUDIES) (HISP)

- Students attending under Hispanic Studies agreements can request courses from Scottish Literature, Comparative Literature and English Literature (Levels 1 or 2)
- Classes from other subjects in the School of Modern Languages can be requested
- Please note translation courses are occasionally oversubscribed. In the event of these not being available, translation students can normally find a suitable alternative with HISP3004
- Courses from the MSc in Translation are not available
- Only full year students may take HISP1009 or HISP2011
- Full year and semester 1 only students may take Level 1 Beginners (HISP1008), however please note that this is often oversubscribed. Level 2 is also often oversubscribed
- Semester 2 only students cannot take any language courses with a HISP code – you should refer to Languages for International Mobility instead

THEATRE STUDIES (THEATRE)

- Levels 3 and 4 are only available to students attending under a Theatre Agreement
- Please note the following courses are not available to visiting students:
 - Performance Theory and Analysis (THEATRE4009)
 - Shaping Futures: Theatre and Cultural Policy (THEATRE4083)
 - Theatre Studies Single Honours Group Project (THEATRE4014)

THEOLOGY & RELIGIOUS STUDIES (TRS)

- All course choices have to be approved by the Erasmus/Overseas convener in TRS and are subject to availability
- Courses that run across both semesters 1 and 2 are not available to single semester students
- Level 1 courses - open to all students with a major in humanities or social sciences, and to students with other majors (e.g. in science and engineering) subject to agreement
- Level 2 courses - open to all students with a major in humanities and with relevant previous study
- Level 3 and 4 courses - open only to students with sufficient previous relevant study, generally in Theology and Religious Studies (this course programme rotates over two years)
- All Erasmus and visiting students are required to complete all assessment including examinations. Special arrangements will be made for semester 1 only students who are taking courses with examinations at the end of semester 2.

College of Science and Engineering

ASTRONOMY (ASTRO)

- Most Astronomy courses are year-long and hence unsuitable for single semester only exchange students
- Astronomy 1001 is not always available. Incoming students may request Level 1 Exploring the Cosmos classes as an alternative
- A minority of level 5 classes may be available to students who are Postgraduates in Astronomy at their home University (subject to background)

Project Work

- Project work must be requested at the point of application
- Final acceptance is subject to:
 - Identifying a supervisor
 - Being nominated for a standard academic duration
- If a supervisor cannot be identified, students will be offered the option of coming to conduct coursework instead

CHEMISTRY (CHEM)

- All credits must be taken within Chemistry
- Levels cannot be mixed. Students will take all credits from one approved level
- Students should be coming for a Full Year – there are limited options for Semester 1 and Semester 2 only students, who may only be able to take project work.
- Attendance is compulsory to all class lectures, tutorials and laboratories

Project Work

- Project work must be requested at the point of application
- Final acceptance is subject to:
 - Identifying a supervisor
 - Being nominated for a standard academic duration
- If a supervisor cannot be identified, students will be offered the option of coming to conduct coursework instead

COMPUTING SCIENCE (COMPSCI)

- All exams for Level 3 and 4 take place in April/May
- Alternative assessment/invigilation at your home University is not possible
- Semester 1 students must return to Glasgow to sit exams during the standard exam diet
- Due to exam requirements, we recommend study durations of semester 2 or Full Year

Project Work

- Project work must be requested at the point of application
- Final confirmation of project work will be during Orientation
- The School cannot guarantee Project Work for students in advance

ENGINEERING (ENG)

- Levels 1 and 2 are unavailable to visiting students
- There may be changes to courses from session to session i.e. a course that ran in Semester 1 of session 18/19 may run in Semester 2 of session 19/20, some courses may not always run
- Visiting students are expected to follow the School of Engineering course selection guide and only take courses associated with one single Engineering degree, and all at the same level (i.e. all ENG3xxx, or ENG4xxx from one programme such as Civil Engineering). To do otherwise will almost always give timetabling problems for classes, laboratories and exams. Note that students may usually take a mixture of ENG4xxx and ENG5xxx courses, although even here there may be timetabling difficulties.

Project Work

- Project work must be requested at the point of application
- Final confirmation of project work will be during Orientation
- The School cannot guarantee project work for students in advance
- Depending on various school constraints, some projects or project courses may not be available to visiting students.

GEOGRAPHY & EARTH SCIENCES (GEOG/ EARTH)

- Administrative fee applies for courses involving a field work/trip option
- Universitatea Babeş-Bolyai Cluj-Napoca Postgraduate students only - Selected Level 5 courses may be available depending on background

Project Work

- Project work must be requested at the point of application
- Students must attend for the Full Year in order to request project work
- Final acceptance is subject to:
 - Identifying a supervisor
 - Being nominated for a standard academic duration
- If a supervisor cannot be identified, students will be offered the option of coming to conduct coursework instead

MATHEMATICS (MATHS)

- All exams for Level 3 and 4 take place in April/May
- Semester 1 students must return to Glasgow to sit exams during the standard exam diet
- Alternative assessment/invigilation at your home University is normally not possible but if it is arranged it will be the responsibility of your home University to make suitable arrangements to hold the examination
- Due to exam requirements, we recommend study durations of semester 2 or full year

PHYSICS (PHYS)

- A minority of Level 5 courses may be available to students who are studying at postgraduate level at their home university
- Semester 1 only students must register for the December exam diet version of Level 4 & 5 courses and must inform relevant Course Convenors if taking Level 1 & 2 courses. More information on this will be provided to students during Orientation

Project Work

- Project work must be requested at the point of application
- Final acceptance is subject to:
 - Identifying a supervisor
 - Being nominated for a standard academic duration
- If a supervisor cannot be identified, students will be offered the option of coming to conduct coursework instead

PSYCHOLOGY (PSYCH)

- Alternate courses in catalogue: these courses run in alternate semesters/years. Full-year courses which ran in 2018/19 may not be offered in 2019/20. Semester 1 courses in 2018/19 may only run in Semester 2 in 2019/20 and vice versa
- Level 4 classes - Only available to students attending under a Psychology agreement with background of at least 2.5 to 3 years (or an equivalent number of credits) in Psychology
- No prerequisites required for Level 1 but please note these courses are often oversubscribed

STATISTICS (STATS)

- All exams for Level 3 and 4 take place in April/May
- Semester 1 students must return to Glasgow to sit exams during the standard exam diet
- Alternative assessment/invigilation at your home University is not possible
- Due to exam requirements, we recommend study durations of semester 2 or full year

Project Work

- Available only to students attending under Double Degree exchange agreement with the University of Bologna. Double Degree students should request the appropriate course code on their online application

College of Social Sciences

ACCOUNTING AND FINANCE (ACCFIN)

- Students cannot mix levels within this subject; classes should be selected from one level
- Students coming under an Accounting and Finance agreement are welcome to request courses from Economics and Management (subject to background)
- Level 3 courses are not available to visiting students
- More information:
<https://www.gla.ac.uk/schools/business/international/studyabroad/incoming/>
- For subject-specific inquiries, please contact: business-international@glasgow.ac.uk

CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPEAN STUDIES (CEES)

- Students coming under a Central and Eastern European Studies agreement must take 40 out of 60 Glasgow credits per semester within this subject area
- A minority of classes from other subject areas can be requested but admittance will be subject to academic background and course availability

ECONOMICS (ECON)

- Entry requirements for Honours courses: Students must have previously completed courses in Introductory and Intermediate Micro and Macro economics plus some Maths/Stats.
- Students cannot mix levels within this subject; classes should be selected from one level
- Students coming under an Economics agreement are welcome to request courses from Accounting, Finance and Management (subject to background)
- Level 3 courses are not available to visiting students
- More information:
<https://www.gla.ac.uk/schools/business/international/studyabroad/incoming/>
- For subject-specific inquiries, please contact: business-international@glasgow.ac.uk

ECONOMIC & SOCIAL HISTORY (ESH)

- No prerequisites required for level 1 courses
- All students are welcome to request classes in this subject area. Approval will be subject to academic background and course availability

EDUCATION (EDUC)

- Limited availability of courses in semester 2
- A study duration of semester 1 or full year is recommended.
- Placement courses are not available to incoming students.

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES (DUMFRIES CAMPUS) (DUMF)

- Our Dumfries Campus is a satellite campus with its own set of exchange agreements. It is therefore NOT possible to take courses from both our Dumfries Campus and our Main Campus.
- Limited availability of courses in semester 2
- A study duration of semester 1 or full year is recommended
- Credit-bearing placement courses are not always available to incoming students

Project Work

- Not normally available, but individual requests may be considered

LAW (LAW)

- Please read the Law School's Visiting Student Guide: <http://www.gla.ac.uk/schools/law/studyabroad/visiting/>
- Levels 1 and 2: Students coming under a Law agreement may request courses from these levels which the course catalogue and Visiting Student Guide state are available for Erasmus students
- Levels 3 and 4: Students must submit their course choices directly to the Law School prior to submitting their online application. Instructions for this are in the Law School's Visiting Student Guide

MANAGEMENT (MGT)

- Students cannot mix levels within this subject; classes should be selected from one level
- If you are studying in year 2 or 3 of a bachelor degree with a focus on business and management, we suggest you select Level 4 courses
- Students coming under a Management agreement are welcome to request courses from Economics and Accounting and Finance (subject to background)
- Level 3 courses are not available to visiting students
- More information: <https://www.gla.ac.uk/schools/business/international/studyabroad/incoming/>
- For subject-specific inquiries, please contact: business-international@glasgow.ac.uk

POLITICS (POLITIC)

- Students cannot mix levels within this subject; classes should be selected from one level
- A list of honours courses will be posted here: <https://www.gla.ac.uk/undergraduate/degrees/politics/internationalexchange/> .

PUBLIC POLICY (PUBPOL)

- No prerequisites are required for level 1 courses
- Please note the following courses are not available in 2019/20:
 - PUBPOL4029/3015 Health and Health Inequalities
 - PUBPOL4037 Education for Citizenship
 - PUBPOL4038 Active Citizenship
 - PUBPOL4040/3018 Making Public Policy
 - PUBPOL4041/3016 Work, Welfare & Politics Reform
- Prerequisites (previous knowledge of social and public policy or related areas) are required for levels 2,3 and 4 courses
- If you are studying in your penultimate/final year of a bachelor or undergraduate degree with a focus on social and public policy, we suggest you select level 4 courses (instead of level 3)
- For most updated information about the programme, course choices, and events and advice, please follow the Public Policy Twitter and Instagram: @UofGSPP

SOCIOLOGY (SOCIO)

- No prerequisites required for level 1 courses
- Prerequisites are required for levels 2,3 and 4
- Level 3 and 4 courses are usually only available to students attending under a Sociology agreement. Students from other subject areas can apply as long as they meet the pre-requisites

URBAN STUDIES (URBAN)

- Courses in this subject area are restricted to postgraduate students attending under our postgraduate agreement with the University of Amsterdam
- Students can choose between two programmes: Urban Analytics or Urban Transport

Project Work

- Project work must be requested at the point of application
- Final acceptance is subject to:
 - Identifying a supervisor
 - Being nominated for a standard academic duration
- If a supervisor cannot be identified, students will be offered the option of coming to conduct coursework instead
- Please note project work cannot be accommodated every year

Language Centre

Language Courses for International Mobility (LANGCTR)

- Students from any agreement can request these courses
- Incoming students can normally only enrol on one language per semester
- Classes available in: Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, Russian, and Spanish

English for Academic Purposes (LANGCTR)

- Students attending under any agreement can request these courses
- EAP language courses have specific language level entry requirements and restrictions
- All EAP course approval and enrolment will happen during Orientation
- For further details, please contact arts-eapconvenor@glasgow.ac.uk
- You will receive more information about these courses closer to the time of your arrival