

The future of Europe: challenges and opportunities – second edition

The Euro after “whatever it takes”: is the worst over?

Università di Padova, Sabato 22 giugno 2013

Aula Nievo – Palazzo del Bo – Via VIII Febbraio

9:00-9:30 – Opening remarks

Morning – Europe in transition

9:30-10:30 – The cyclical position and potential growth: Italy and the euro area. Speakers: Stefano Siviero, Banca d'Italia; Emanuele Baldacci, ISTAT.

10:30 -11:30 – Fiscal adjustment in Italy and Spain. Speakers: Sandro Momigliano, Banca d'Italia; Massimo Suardi, European Commission.

coffee break

12:00-13:00 – Internal and external rebalancing. Speakers: Silvia Ardagna, Goldman Sachs; Alessandro Turrini, European Commission.

Afternoon – Money and finance

14:30-15:30 – Liquidity conditions in the area: across markets and countries. Speakers: Francesco Drudi, ECB; Filippo Altissimo, Tudor Investment.

15:30-16:30 – Banking union and financial stability. Speakers: Carmelo Salleo, ESRB Secretariat; Donato Masciandaro, Università' Bocconi.

coffee break

17:00-18:00 – Panel: What are the main risks going forward?

Francesco Caselli, London School of Economics

Paolo Manasse, Università' di Bologna

Andrea Montanino, Direttore Esecutivo IMF

18:30 – End of workshop

Rules: speakers have 20 minutes. In each session 20 minutes are for the general discussion.

To register for the conference, please send the request to: direzione.decon@unipd.it